INSTRUCTIONS - PHYSICAL REDEMPTION FORM (PUT OPTION EXERCISE FORM)¹

You (also referred to in this document as the “Bondholder”) may redeem (exercise) your Securities via an Authorised Participant (For further information please refer to the Redemption Information Document, the Prospectus or Base Prospectus, available at <https://www.etc-group.com/> or email redemptions@etc-group.com or info@iticapital.com). Alternatively, you may redeem your Securities directly with ETC Issuance GmbH (the “Issuer”) by following the steps as set out in this document and submitting the relevant Put Option Exercise Form included with this document.

Please read the Redemption Information Document first. You may redeem your Securities for settlement in the underlying cryptocurrency (in which case you must use the form beginning on page 4, and please take note of instruction 3 below, disregarding instruction 4). If for legal or regulatory reasons (eg. you are a UCITS investor) you are prohibited to receive redemption proceeds in cryptocurrency, you may redeem your Securities for settlement in US dollars (in which case you must use the form beginning on page 6, and please take note of instruction 4 below, disregarding instruction 3).

1. Complete and send the relevant Put Option Exercise Form via email to redemptions@etc-group.com.² Please complete this form carefully and fully, including notarization and (where required) apostilling, together with PDF copies of all required documentation. The Redemption Information Document contains full instructions and guidance on completing the form.
2. The Issuer will review your documents and may request additional information if required. Your redemption request will be subject to an Upfront Redemption Fee³ of EUR 50 to be transferred as per (a) below, as well as a further fee (the “Exercise Fee”) of 1% of the cryptocurrency entitlement, which will be withheld from your redemption proceeds. Once you receive confirmation from the Issuer via email⁴ that your form has been processed successfully, please make sure you:
